

I am writing in opposition the broadcast flag mandate. I understand the need for the protection of works with copyright, but to cripple electronic devices in order to get that protection is overkill. If you find someone illegally distributing a copyrighted piece of work, then use the current laws to prosecute them. Don't punish the majority of us law-abiding citizens by sacrificing our personal freedoms and fair use rights for the entertainment industry.